

You are so much more than you realize!

Debbie Jenae

“A gifted speaker” and “an inspiration”

Debbie Jenae is a child abuse survivor, advocate, and award-winning author. 50 years ago, she had no one to tell. Today she talks to anyone who will listen reminding them of their value and unlimited potential. With a unique approach to understanding and self-expression, her work is designed to encourage, inform, and inspire others, especially survivors.

Debbie's perspective is influenced by

- Seven years as a court-appointed special advocate (Governor's award nominee)
- Personal experience, study, and training in trauma and healing
- A passion for the alternatives such as handwriting analysis (master certified and Graphoanalyst of the Year 2015), mind-body medicine, and Native American spirituality - because they were all an integral part of her healing.

A new perspective to encourage, inform, and inspire!

Inspired 101

A resource for positive action, advocacy, and healing.
Inspired 101 News, a free monthly e-newsletter

If Roses Were Blue

The story of a young girl's courage to escape from a secret and into an adventure marked with a series of rescues, including her own! A lady of light, a boy named Gus, and a stolen dog add to this delightful tale of courage, trust, and friendship.

Be An Inspiration!

Based on her list of 101 Things You Can Do To Prevent Child Abuse, plus more than 40 resources, this book is a celebration of human potential!

Contact Debbie today! 805-688-9370

DebbieJenae.com dj@debbiejenae.com P. O. Box 1054, Santa Ynez, CA 93460